GENERAL BUSINESS: Brett explained why Management Committee sent a letter to Chris Skinner proposing cancelling his Life and Ordinary Membership. Chris has 30 days from receipt of the letter to respond. Correspondence by TXT from Chris to Secretary advising response to termination letter was being written, once received committee will review.

Harold spoke about Hugh Smith, had been a member many years ago, had a nice 63 Lark which had been purchased new by Baxters. Harold's father had replaced the chassis when young lads had tried to run over tree stump, fitted auto transmission at same time.

With regard to Stude herse Jack Sim's car is still available for funeral processions.

Ross gave report on his assistance with his immaculate Hawk for young lady's special request to be transported in classic car to The Lodge Youth Support Service. Good effort Ross!

Brett reminded all of request from Stude News editor for members to provide a Bio on their history and involvement with Studebakers.

John Cosgrove brought along the promotional flyers for 2019 Nationals that Louise had arranged.

Harold said there are lots of sales of fuel pumps for Stude's around Australia at present, many seem to be failing, maybe its just at the right age. Make sure you keep you fuel pump maintenance up to date, it can ruin a good day out.
