GENERAL BUSINESS:

i. Special Interest Vehicle Concession Scheme (Club Registration)

It was reiterated that use of special interest vehicles such as many of the cars in the SCCQ for Club events, or events with other clubs requires the driver of the vehicle to have a copy of the run sheet for the event on their person to meet registration and insurance requirements.

ii. SCCQ Show and Shine 2020

September 13 at Colleges Crossing

RAFFLE:

Greg Devantier ran the raffle and has volunteered to assist with the raffle at future meetings. Lorna Venema donated a bottle of pink Moscato wine for the raffle.

There were three raffle draws.

Two bottles of wine, white and red won by Rob Venema

SCCQ Mug, won by Jim Dack, who had only recently broken the handle from his original mug, and Bottle of pink Moscato, won by Dennis Jewsbury.

There being no further business President Brett closed the meeting with thanks to all present at 20:30 to be followed by much catching up after a five month break.
