SOCIAL REPORT

Gear Day, Lakeside. Ross reported that 5 cars had attended a most enjoyable day and felt that similar events at Lakeside should be encouraged amongst members.

Caboolture Historic Village. Gus reported that 3 cars had attended this club outing.

Web Editor Report

George advised that everything was up to date with the Web site.

GENERAL BUSINESS

SCCQ State Meet - Concours. Ross advised that this event would be held on the weekend of August 28-29 at the Petrie Historical Village.

The proposed format for the weekend is as follows:

Friday: Early bird arrival, long-distance drivers can arrive. Informal evening, gather and chat.

Saturday: Concours for originality – show & shine for mods & others cars. Cars in Place by 10am, concludes around 4pm. Presentation dinner in the evening.

Sunday: Drive day & lunch for those interested.

Founding Club Member, Robert Griffiths: Ross advised that he had had a chance meeting with the daughter of one of our Club's founding members, Robert Griffiths. Although Robert died in 1986, the family still has his collection of Studebakers which they hope will one day be restored by Robert's grandchildren. Ross extended a warm invitation to Robert's family to make contact with the Club at any time.
