GENERAL BUSINESS

Run Sheets for Monthly Meetings. Jim led a general discussion with members agreeing that the promulgated Agenda for the Monthly Meeting served as a suitable run sheet.

Show and Shine Venue for 2025. Janelle advised that the future of Old Petrie Town had not been resolved by Moreton Bay Council which necessitated alternate venues be considered by the Club. Janelle suggested that Redlands Museum be considered adding that Sunday, 24th August would coincide with 2025 Redlands Model Railway Show. After a general discussion, the meeting agreed that Janelle and Michael should make enquiries with the Redlands Museum.

MEETING CLOSURE

There being no further business Jim thanked everyone for attending and closed the meeting at 8.20pm.

RAFFLE

Won by Jim McKinnon, a Studebaker plaque, $20.00 gift voucher and a Thunderbird calendar.

MEMBER ITEM OF INTEREST

This month’s “Member Item of Interest” was presented by Athol Lubbe and included a video presentation (<https://youtu.be/DzLh4bFBDSI>) on the advantages and disadvantages of classic car ownership. The video created an enthusiastic discussion amongst members with consensus being that monetary value was not the key driver in owning a Studebaker. Many thanks Athol.
